END OF THE TERM.

Interesting Closing Exercises in Public Schools of the City.

Interesting closing exercises were held at the Government schools in the city yesterday. Inspector General H. S. Townsend attended as many exhibitions in different buildings as were within the compass of one man to see anything on which to base a judgment. The Inspector-General expresses himself as highly pleased with the condition of all the schools visited and of which he has received verbal reports from other visiting educationists.

HIGH SCHOOL.

At the High School, in the late Princess Ruth's palace, there were graduating exercises. The following named pupils graduated: Mary Girvin, Leila Lemon, Lulu Cameron, Mabel Gilbert, Lola Bush and Robert Mist. The exercises by the pupils consisted of singing, recitations and essays as follows: "Agriculture in Hawaii" by Robt. Mist; "Ancient Hawaiian Schools" by Lola Bush, and "Archeology" by Mary Girvin. Professor Alexander delivered an address to the graduating class. Principal M. M. Scott and Vice Principal J. Lightfoot showed by results that they have worthily improved the enhanced opportunities afforded them as educators in being placed at the head of the first distinct public academy started in this city, housed within a building that is a credit to the educational equipment of the country.

There was a combination of forces by the grammar grade classes of Mrs. Dumas and Miss Brewer, the exercises consisting of music, compositions, recitations, model letter, etc. All were highly creditable.

Miss Needham's class had exercises to itself. They consisted of class reading, compositions and songs, and were much enjoyed.

There was a large attendance of visitors at the various departments.

ROYAL SCHOOL.

There was the usual great crowd of parents and friends at the Royal School. The exercises were purely exhibitional—reciting, singing, etc., and as usual were highly entertaining. Principal Mackintosh and his staff always render a good account of themselves.

FORT-STREET SCHOOL.

Mr. Townsend spent a good deal of time at the Fort-street select school, where the four departments made a very pleasant display in the primary room, where Miss Coursen gives the youngest pupils a long push ahead on the path of knowledge. Some superb results were exhibited of the teaching of that lady and of the teachers in the grades above, taught in regular upward gradation by Misses Atkinson, Moore and Walker, respectively.

KULAOKAHUA SCHOOL.

Actual school work formed the closing exhibition of the Kulaokahua, or Beretania street school. Many parents and friends were present. The work was very satisfactory. Both the excellent condition of the grounds and the appearance of the children are officially mentioned with approbation. Miss Maronie the teacher is doing good work there. There is a spirit in the school which tells much in her favor. It is manifest in an evidently friendly feeling between teacher and pupils.

POHUKAINA.

At the Pohukaina girls' school on Punchbowl and Likie like street there was the accustomed course of appreciative parents and friends. The singing especially was delightful, and the evidences of careful training in studies were all-pervading. Miss Laura Duncan, the efficient principal, is well supported by Misses May Atkinson, Zoe Atkinson and Julia Perry.

KAULUWELA SCHOOL.

It goes without saying that Kauluwela school on School street gave a showing greatly enjoyed by all who attended the closing. Armstrong Smith, principal, is well-known as an able manager of boys, and has efficient aids in the other teachers—Mrs. Frasher, Miss Lofquist, Mrs. Wood, Miss Bertha Smithies and Miss Green.

Ah Sam was convicted of being a common nuisance of the first class in Judge de la Vergne's court this morning and fined $500. His offense consisted of indecent exposure in the presence of young children. He will work out his fine on the roads.
